Macolly-Forcine

Marylouise Macolly and James Bradley Forcine were married Oct. 8 at Saints' Cosmas & Damian Roman Catholic Church in Conshohocken. The Rev. George Mazzotta officiated.

The bride, daughter of Marie Macolly of Conshohocken and Raymond Macolly of Deltona, Fla., is a graduate of Plymouth Whitemarsh High School and Drexel University. She is a salesperson for McDonnell Douglas in Malvern.

The groom, son of Adeline Forcine of Phoenixville and the late Francis Forcine, is a graduate of Phoenixville High School. He is self-employed.

Kim Guarisco was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Melissa Forcine, the groom's sister, Patricia Paynter and Lori Ashmead.

Brian Forcine, the groom's brother, was the best man. Ushers were David Faggioli, John Evans and Mark Falcone.

Lynn Potter was the reader.

A reception was held at the Guest Quarters Hotel in Plymouth Meeting.
