To the Congregation of Mount Airy
Presbyterian Church

Congratulations on the anniversary of your congregation.

As Americans, we cherish our freedom to worship, and we recognize that the spiritual vitality of our people is both a renewable and inexhaustible source of our strength as a Nation.

In observing this anniversary, you pay tribute to founders and other leaders whose hopes, sacrifices and dedication extend from the past to inspire generations of the present and the future.

Rosalynn and I are pleased to send our best wishes to each of you and to join in your prayers for continued blessings on your congregation and on our Nation.
