

TEACHERS COLLEGE
COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY
NEW YORK

September 19, 1917

Mr. S. B. Ashmead,
213 North Sixth Street,
Newark, New Jersey.

Dear Sir:

Examination of your record shows that you have credits as follows:

	1914-1915	6	points
	1915-1916	12	"
	1916 s.s.	5	"
3 444	1916-1917	15	"
		38	"

This leaves 30 points to be done to fulfil your B.S. requirement.

In subjects you still lack the following:

Education 125-6-6

Education	A	4	points
"	B	4	"
"	2	4	"
"	148, 148x	4	"
"	281, 282	4	"
Drawing	3-4	4	"
English		6	"
Fine Arts	31-32	6	"
History	B	6	"
		48	"
		54

Unless you obtain exemptions from some of these subjects, you will be unable to complete the work in one year.

Yours very truly,

Florence E. Peck

Registrar.

Dec. 28, 1917.

Mr. Samuel B. Ashmead,
213 No. 6th St.,
Newark, N. J.

Dear Sir:-

At the meeting of the Board of Education held Thursday evening,
Dec. 27, 1917, you were granted a furlough for the period of the war,
from Dec. 1, 1917.

Yours truly,

I.

Secretary